

The conference dinner will be held at Die Saison, which is located in Herrenkrug Parkhotel Magdeburg
Herrenkrug 3, 39114 Magdeburg

There is also a bar located in the building, for those who wish to arrive early and have a drink.

To travel by tram, take the 6 from Askanischer Platz (the big intersection next to MPI), in the direction of Herrenkrug. The 6 is also good for the return trip, with the last one departing around 23:00.

The journey by foot or bike is about 3.5km (2.2mi) one way. You can follow Sarajevo-Ufer and turn right on the foot bridge Herrenkrugsteg, which leads directly to the hotel. Or you can cross Jerusalembrücke (the big bridge next to MPI), turn left to follow the Alte Elbe, and then pass through a small park. Both ways are lovely at this time of year.
